Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your e-mail of 21st February 2010 in which you requested information concerning MOT data for Northern Ireland and information relating to faults discovered on Toyota cars.

The Vehicle and Operator Services Agency does not administer or operate the MOT system in Northern Ireland. This is done by the Driver and Vehicle Agency. Should you wish to contact them for this information, the following link will take you to their website. <http://www.dvni.gov.uk/>

As you are no doubt aware, there has been much in the press in recent weeks concerning Toyota vehicles. Information on all recalls can be found using our Search Engine, which can be found by clicking on the following link. <http://www.dft.gov.uk/vosa/apps/recalls/default.asp?tx=VOSA>

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0002473.

If you are unhappy with the response provided, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

VOSA Corporate Office,
Berkeley House,
Croydon Street,
Bristol,
BS5 0DA

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.
